This property is a hidden gem in the sense that the interior are wonderful and unique, something that cannot be ascertained looking from the outside. With exterior areas that are second to none and interiors that have been tastefully remodeled and furnished this property represents an opportunity to find the right home in Tavira.

The property is a terraced house, part of a quiet residential area within walking distance to Tavira, situated in a cul-de sac with the perfect sun orientation to enjoy sun or shade at any given time of the day.

The front patio has several split level areas comprising of sitting areas and flower beds. There is also a very practical wooden storage house to put away bicycles, golf clubs, tools, etc..

The back patio is the relaxing "good life" side of the house with a beautiful cozy glass dining area just off the exterior kitchen area, an outside shower is perfect to freshen up on the hot days and a Jacuzzi
